DEATHS

MRS. JOHN CURTIS CALDWELL

Mrs. Bessie Virginia Harwood Caldwell, 48, died at the Virginia Baptist Hospital, Lynchburg, early Friday morning, June 24, following an illness of six months.

She is survived by her husband, John Curtis Caldwell; two sons, John C. ("Jack") Caldwell Jr. and William Harwood Caldwell; her mother, Mrs. Bessie Sears Harwood; two sisters, Mrs. Jack K. Marshall and Mrs. Harold C. Caudle, the latter residing in Richmond; and a brother, Alfred R. Harwood Jr.

Funeral services were conducted from Liberty Baptist Church Sunday at 3 P. M., by a former pastor, the Rev. J. Marshall Walker of Durham, N. C., assisted by Dr. Carl A. Collins Jr., pastor of Liberty Baptist Church, and Dr. W. Twyman Williams, pastor of Appomattox C. H. Presbyterian Church. Interment was made in Liberty Cemetery.

"Bessie V.," as she was affectionately known to her host of friends and relatives, was born in Appomattox County, September 19, 1906, daughter of Mrs. Bessie Sears Harwood and the late Alfred Rice Harwood.

She was a graduate of the Appomattox High School and a graduate of the class of 1928 of the College of William and Mary. She taught Physical Education in the East End Junior High School, Richmond, for eight years.

It has been said that thousands of men breathe, move and live; pass off the stage of life and are heard of no more. Why? They did not a particle of good in the world; none were blest by them and none could point to them as the instrument of their redemption; their light went out in darkness and they were not remembered. Truly this can not be said of Bessie V., as her virtue was the eternal sacrifice of self.

Her leadership in church and civic affairs in Appomattox County was unexcelled. She served as president of the Woman's Missionary Union of Liberty Baptist Church from 1949-51 and again in 1954, having resigned this office this year on account of her failing health. At the time of her death she was serving as Superintendent of the Intermediate Department of Liberty Baptist Sunday School. At one time she served as Group Leader of No. IV of the Appomattox W. M. U. Association. For many years she was a faithful member of the church choir. She was a member of the Buildings and Grounds Committee of her church.

No member of Liberty Baptist Church has ever been more faithful to their assigned church duties than Bessie V. It was very appropriate that she requested the congregational singing of the hymn, "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord," at the funeral. She was a great believer in Prayer, and at her request, the Rev. Walker used as his subject, "Prayer."

Bessie V. was untiring in her efforts to enter into the civic undertakings of Appomattox. She was a charter member of the Woman's Club of Appomattox. She was a past president of the Appomattox Garden Club and served as chairman of the Civic Committee.

For a number of years she served as county chairman of the T. B. Christmas Seal Sale. She was instrumental in bringing to Appomattox free health clinics, among them a dental clinic for school children.

She was one of the promoters in bringing to Appomattox the American Red Cross Blood Bank and she served as recruitment chairman of same.

In defining character, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt once said, "Character building begins in our infancy and continues until death." This is truly applicable to our departed friend, Bessie V.

A large concourse of friends and loved ones attended the funeral services. Active pallbearers were: Eugene Sears, Charles Jenkins, Robert Hubbard, John Taylor, C. T. Moses, Jr., Lowell Ayers, Rolf Frame, William Hix, and J. Ellis Brame. The deceased requested no flowers and instead a fund to be established to build a cottage at Eagle Eyrie Baptist Summer Encampment. Between $400 and $500 has been placed in the treasury of Liberty Baptist Church for this fund.

(Editor's note: We are grateful to Mrs. J. R. Lawson for preparing the foregoing item).

MR. EDWARD J. MARSH

Edward Johnson Marsh, 78, died at his home, Route 4, Appomattox, June 24 at 3 P. M., after an illness of three months.

Born in Appomattox County Oct. 7, 1876, he was the son of Stephen Thomas and Elvira Gordon Marsh. He was a successful farmer. He was a member of the Red Oak Baptist Church, and was a deacon in the church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Wenona Hamilton Marsh; three daughters, Mrs. E. J. Hillsman, Appomattox; Mrs. J. M. Lucado, of Lynchburg; Mrs. P. R. Harris, Bedford; two sons, H. H. and Alfred E. Marsh, Appomattox; four sisters, Mrs. L. H. Childers, Mrs. W. L. Williamson, Appomattox; Mrs. C. R. Harris, Lynchburg; Mrs. W. S. Thomas, Lynchburg; a brother, Thomas G. Marsh, Appomattox; 20 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 4:30 P. M. at the Red Oak Baptist Church, with burial in the church cemetery. The pastor, the Rev. Edgar S. Price conducted the services. Active pallbearers were: H. B. Lucado, Edward Harris, J. M. Lucado, Jr.; R. M. Lucado, Gene Lucado and F. E. Marsh, Jr.

MRS. ANDREW P. WHITE

Mrs. Lizzie Abbitt White, 83, the widow of Andrew P. White, died here June 28, after an extended illness.

Born in Appomattox County in December, 1871, she was the daughter of the late George W. and Frances Wells Abbitt.

She is survived by a brother, George F. Abbitt, of Appomattox; a sister, Mrs. Helen A. Bernard, of Norfolk; and a number of nieces and nephews, among them Rep. Watkins Abbitt.

She was a member of the Liberty Baptist Church here, where funeral services will be conducted Friday at 11 A. M., by Dr. Carl A. Collins, Jr, pastor. Interment will be in Liberty Cemetery.

The body will be placed in Liberty Baptist Church at 9 A. M.

LOCAL PASTOR IS ORDAINED

. . . . Pastor William Carey

William Carey, pastor of the Appomattox and Guinea Mills Seventh-day Adventists churches was one of the two men ordained to the gospel ministry at the state-wide convention in New Market last Saturday. Ordained at the same service was John E. Kelchner, of Big Stone Gap, Va.

The ordination gives full ecclesiastical authority to Pastor Carey. The Seventh-day Adventist church requires its ministers to serve a term of three-five years in evangelistic, associate pastoral, and pastoral service before being ordained.

Dan A. Ochs, President of the Columbia Union Conference of Washington, D. C., gave the ordination address. A. V. Olson, of Washington, D. C., vice-president of the General Conference of Adventists offered the ordination prayer. The welcome to the ministry was given by Clinton J. Coon, of Washington, D. C., president of the Potomac Conference of Adventists.

The ordination was the highlight of the all day services which saw over 4,000 in attendance at the Shenandoah Valley Academy. The meetings will continue through Sunday, July 3. The largest attendance at the ten-day conference is expected over this week-end.

Pastor Carey is a graduate of Washington Missionary College at Washington, D. C. He has served as associate pastor in Roanoke, Richmond, Fredericksburg, and Emporia. He has also been engaged in ministerial work in Lynchburg.

His wife and son's family were present for the service. Friends from his churches also attended the special service.

GREYHOUND BUSES RUNNING AGAIN

(Special to Times-Virginian)

The recent strike which halted service of the Atlantic Greyhound bus lines for 84 days has been settled, according to an announcement by George S. Engle, president of the Atlantic Greyhound Corporation. Engle stated that full-scheduled bus operation will be resumed from all Atlantic Greyhound terminals and stations on Thursday morning, June 30.

Resumed service will include all regular scheduled runs, both local and cross-country, all through and express service, as well as additions to the bus company's fleet of new 2-level Greyhound Scenicruisers, and all Greyhound Tour and Vacation Planning Service.

BOOKLET AVAILABLE

The Children's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare has just revised its popular booklet entitled, "Infant Care," which has been prepared as a public service.

The publication, of which millions of copies have been distributed, is being made available through the office of Representative Watkins M. Abbitt to residents of the Fourth Congressional District.

The booklet deals with all the problems of a new baby and gives helpful hints to parents in caring for young children. The 106-page publication is prepared by experts in the field of medicine and child care.

This is the 10th revision of the original printed in 1914 and offers the latest information available on the subject.

Copies may be secured free upon request by writing to Representative Abbitt, 1008 House Office Building, Washington, D. C.
